Name_____#_____

Story Problem Rubric

	4	3	2	1
Picture of Solution	The picture is very neat and accurate. It very clearly shows the solution to the story problem.	The picture is neat and accurate. It shows the solution to the problem.	The picture may be confusing or inaccurate. The solution is hard to see.	No picture OR the picture is too confusing to be understood.
Number Sentence	The number sentence very clearly shows the steps to the problem. The answer is labeled correctly.	The number sentence clearly shows the steps to the problem. The answer is labeled correctly.	The number sentence is missing steps, is unclear, or the answer is not labeled.	No number sentence, or the number sentence does not follow the story. The answer is not labeled.
Answer	The answer is correct. All work is shown.	The answer is correct. Most of the work is shown.	The answer is incorrect OR little work is shown.	The answer is incorrect and little work is shown.
Check answer with division	The answer has been checked by using division. All work is shown.	The answer has been checked by using division. All work is shown.	The answer has been check by using division. Little work is shown.	The answer has not been check by using division. No work is shown.
Use of manipulatives to model	Manipulatives have been used to solve each step of the problem.	Manipulatives have been used to solve most steps of the problem.	Manipulatives have not been used for most steps of the problem.	Manipulatives have not been used.
Overall Neatness	The story problem has been very neatly written. The solution is very easy to find. The illustration is very neat and very colorful.	The story problem has been neatly written. The solution is easy to find. The illustration is neat and colorful.	The story problem is somewhat sloppy. The solution may be difficult to find. The illustration is sloppy or not colorful.	The story problem is too sloppy to be read. The solution can not be found. The illustration is sloppy or not colorful.