

TEACHER RUBRIC FOR EVALUATION OF GROUP PROJECTS & PRESENTATIONS

	Excellent	Good	Fair	Needs Improvement
Quality of Overall Presentation	Uses multiple modes, visuals, graphics, etc to hold audience attention	Provides clear, orderly flow with introduction, body & conclusion.	All needed information present	Some information provided, little organization
Coordination Among Group Members	All members shared work according to abilities and expertise	Work divided fairly among all members	All members had a part in the presentation	One or two members did most work,
Quality of Knowledge communicated	All information related to the topic and well organized	Most information accurate and clearly presented	information presented is factual and authentic	Some information provided
Clarity of information presented	All information easily understood	Most information easily understood	Some information easily understood	Little information easily understood
Adherence to Constructivist learning concepts	provided opportunities for authentic activities and discovery learning	Student oriented, allowed for audience input into the learning experience	Audience involved in the presentation in some way	Direct teaching with little audience participation